

Minimum number of credit hours for this degree is 128. At least 64 hours must be completed at a four-year school.

- ❖ Transfer Admission Criteria:
  1. Completed Radiologic Science Major application by deadline.
  2. Cumulative minimum GPA of 2.5 or above.
  3. A "C" or better in all of the required prerequisite courses* for the major.
  4. Minimum of 45 anticipated credit hours prior to the start of the major.
  5. Required observation in a Radiology Department, documented by a 1-page typed essay about the experience, including information about the hospital and contact person.
  6. Required prerequisite courses may be only repeated once for a "C".
- ❖ Additional considerations for transfer students:
  1. Number of prerequisite courses repeated for a "C" or better.
  2. On-campus interview.
  3. GPA.
  4. Number of required prerequisite courses remaining prior to fall semester.
- ❖ Transfer students are not guaranteed automatic acceptance after meeting the criteria. The number of positions available is calculated after the first-time, full-time first-year students have been admitted to the major.
- ❖ Students accepted into the program are required to have health insurance coverage and a completed health analysis, to pass a drug and alcohol screening and to undergo an extensive national background check prior to starting at the clinical site.
